National Intellectual Property Rights Coordination Center
IPR Center Auditorium- Suite 150
2451 Crystal Drive
Arlington, VA 20598-5105

The National Intellectual Property Rights Coordination Center (IPR Center), in Arlington, Virginia, is hosting a symposium to address the threat of Online IP Theft in the 21st Century. The symposium will highlight Online IP Theft, its impact, the various issues surrounding it, and interventions being undertaken by the public and private sectors to address this growing problem. The symposium will bring together law enforcement, rights holders, industry experts, third-party service providers and academia working to fight IP theft, and offers an excellent networking opportunity for attendees to meet key players involved in tackling cyber crime and IP theft.

How to Register?

Registration is open to law enforcement, rights holders, industry experts, third-party service providers and academics.

1. Complete the attached “2011 IPR Center Symposium” registration form.
2. Submit registration form to IPRCenterOutreach@dhs.gov by September 2, 2011.
3. Receive registration confirmation letter from IPR Center Outreach. Please maintain this letter for your records.
